"Portree is named after the capital of the Isle of Skye, the Scottish Western Isle from which the winemaker Ken Murchison's family originally came. The vineyard and winery produce highly regarded cool-climate wines, including a complex and fascinating Chardonnay, a crisp and very well-mannered Rose' called Damask, and, in more recent times, an exciting new Pinot Noir."

Ben Canalder

BYO lunch, Vizsla, chair, water bowl, water and treats for your dog
